Introduction

Your use of this website and/or any of the products and/or services detailed on this website is subject to these Terms and Conditions. By using this website and/or any of such products and/or services you show your agreement to such Terms and Conditions. If you do not accept our Terms and Conditions, please do not use this website and/or any of our products and/or services.

Headings used in these Terms and Conditions are for convenience only and shall not affect the interpretation of such terms and conditions.

Product Terms and Conditions

If you apply for any product or service detailed on this website, these Terms and Conditions should be read in conjunction with any other terms and conditions which relate to any such product or service and, in the event of any contradiction between these Terms and Conditions and the specific terms and conditions relating to such product or service, the latter shall prevail. For the purposes of these Terms and Conditions, products and services shall include, without limitation, any legal, insurance, financial and/or related products and/or services.

Membership Product Terms and Conditions

Any advice or representation provided to Members in accordance with the Membership Products will only relate to legal proceedings, potential or otherwise, arising out of offences committed, or may have been committed, on dates after the effective start date of the Membership or before the expiry of the Membership (the “Membership Period”). Driving-Law is able to provide legal advice and support to Members relating to offences that have, or may have, been committed outside the Membership Period subject to the member paying fees in accordance with the terms and conditions for the non-membership products as advertised on the website from time to time.
